Split Rock Lighthouse State Park

Afton State Park

Whitewater State Park

Central Lakes State Trail

Brown's Creek State Trail

Since 1954, Parks & Trails Council of Minnesota has been a pioneering voice for the creation and preservation of natural areas for everyone to enjoy and benefit from. Starting with the purchase of what would become Afton State Park, our founders began a movement of private action for public benefit that continues today.

Respected for having an effective voice and track record at the state capitol, Parks & Trails Council has trailblazed a successful model for land conservation that has saved thousands of acres for parks and trails in Minnesota.

HOW WE WORK

We are a member-supported nonprofit that is active on several fronts in the protection and enhancement of our state's treasured natural areas.

LAND ACQUISITION

- When a piece of land within or next to a park or along a trail comes up for sale, we work with the landowner to quickly purchase it, using our Samuel H. Morgan Land Fund.
- We hold the land in trust as long as necessary, protecting it from future development.
- When public funding becomes available and plans approved, we sell the land at cost to be incorporated into the park or trail.
- The dollars are reinvested in the next critical parcel.

ADVOCACY

Aligned with our land preservation efforts, we make our presence known at the state capitol, where critical decisions are made that impact the future of parks and trails in Minnesota.

EDUCATION

We foster a community of caretakers for our special places by supporting the work of Friends Groups across the state.
